Dear Juan:

Congratulations! You have been chosen as a finalist for CAOC's esteemed 2010-2011 Consumer Attorney of the Year Award for your work in Curiel v. SSA Marine. You will be recognized as a finalist, and the winner will be announced, during the Consumer Attorneys of California Annual Installation and Awards Dinner on Saturday, November 12, 2011 in San Francisco at the Palace Hotel.

Soon you will be contacted by Rob Feldman and Keiko Johnson of Juris Productions to arrange a time to interview you for a short video on the finalists that will be shown at the dinner. In order to ensure the finished video will fit in the allotted time at the awards dinner, we ask finalists with multiple attorneys to designate one person to be interviewed by Juris Productions.

The names of our finalists and their cases will appear in the awards dinner program, on our web site, in news releases, and in Forum magazine. We want to make sure your listing is completely accurate, so please send the names of all attorneys who should be recognized, exactly as they should appear (with or without middle initial, etc.), and in the order they should appear, as well as the precise name of the case as it should be listed, to our press secretary J.G. Preston at jgpreston@caoc.org no later than Monday, September 19, 2011. He will prepare a brief summary of your case to be used in the program and on the web site, and he will send it to you to check its accuracy before it appears anywhere. Also, it is very important you send a photo to CAOC for the awards brochure; send it to the attention of Sharon Scott at sharon@caoc.org no later than Monday, September 19^h, 2011.

I urge you to act now to secure tables for our awards dinner since it sold out last year. Please complete and return the attached form today to ensure reserved seating. Good news should be shared, and we encourage you to notify your family, friends, colleagues and vendors so that they may also attend the dinner to witness this important moment or to place congratulatory messages in the Awards Dinner Program. The CAOC staff would be happy to contact these individuals on your behalf. If you would like us to do so, please complete the contact information requested on the form provided.

On behalf of everyone here at Consumer Attorneys of California, let me again congratulate you for having been chosen as a finalist for the Consumer Attorney of the Year Award.

Sincerely,

Nancy Drabble
CEO
